

Please note that the same article cannot be published both in a conference proceedings and in our journal. Authors are asked to submit their papers in MS Word format and using our Online paper Submission System:

Submission

The editors reserve the right to edit articles to conform to the style of the journal. Please use this template for your paper:

- Author Guidelines
- Authorship statement
- Paper Format Sample

Language

All articles must be written in English.

If English is not your first language, please ask an English-speaking colleague to proofread your paper.

Structure of the Article

Abstract

Keywords

Introduction

Research methodology

Body of the article

Conclusion

References

Appendices(if applicable)

Metadata

Title, author details, abstract and keywords are vital part of a paper, since it is these metadata which are freely available to all users and from which online searches can find the paper.

